Randall Bramblett Band with the Megablaster Horns

Bramblett is an American musician and singer-songwriter, whose career as a solo artist, session player, and touring musician, has spanned more than three decades. Bramblett's band is accompanied by the Megablaster Horns (three additional horns- trumpet, trombone, additional sax).

"One of the South's most lyrical and literate songwriters."
Rolling Stone Magazine

February 10, 2024, 7:00pm

Alabama Troubadours

This stellar lineup includes: Rick Carter (Rollin In The Hay, Telluride), Stan Foster (Rollin In The Hay, Phil and Foster), Donna Hall (Wet Willie), and William "Moose" Harrell (Jason Ringenberg, Telluride). These savvy veterans have toured the world and then some; catch them as they celebrate the music of the great John Prine. If you're a Prine fan, this show is a must-see. If you are just learning about the masterful writings of John Prine, then you can't miss these Alabama legends in their show of deep reverence for an American music treasure.

Drew and Ellie Holcomb "Feels Like Home" tour

Drew and Ellie Holcomb are a husband and wife Americana duo from Nashville, TN. Shortly after their marriage in 2006, the couple began touring together with Drew Holcomb and The Neighbors. The band has supported many national touring acts including The Avett Brothers, NEED TO BREATHE, Don Henley, Willie Nelson, Amos Lee, and Darius Rucker.

Ellie is no longer a touring member of "The Neighbors" and has found success in a solo career as a Christian singer/songwriter and bestselling author, winning two Dove Awards and topping the Billboard charts.

Drew Holcomb still tours nationally with Drew Holcomb and The Neighbors and their most recent album, Dragons, is their most critically acclaimed release yet.
