

Jason Petty's "Hank & My Honky Tonk Heroes"

There is only one Hank Williams and Jason Petty portrays him best. He starred as Hank in New York City's hit Off Broadway musical, "Lost Highway", as well as at Nashville's world famous Ryman Auditorium. While Jason will perform many Hank Williams' hits such as "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry", "Your Cheatin' Heart", "Lovesick Blues", "Cold, Cold Heart" and many more, this show is more than just a Hank Williams tribute. Backed by an authentic four-piece band, he will pay tribute to stars that influenced Hank and those stars that Hank influenced. A MUST SEE for all country music fans.

Blues Legend Tinsley Ellis

Tinsley Ellis, southern blues/rock guitar wizard, vocalist and songwriter, is a bona fide worldwide guitar hero. He has performed in all 50 United States as well as in Canada, Western and Eastern Europe, Australia and South America, earning legions of fans with his guitar virtuosity, passionate vocals and memorable original songs. Whether playing deep, slow blues or up tempo rockers, Ellis rides a gorgeously fat, pure tone. He has shared the stage with Stevie Ray Vaughan, The Allman Brothers, The Tedeschi Trucks Band, Widespread Panic and many others.

Chi-Town Transit Authority A Chicago Tribute Band

Chi-Town Transit Authority is a rocking seven-piece band created in the image of the original configuration of the rock group Chicago. Each band member authentically recreates the sound of the original members. They play a wide variety of Chicago's catalogue, including the big hits, the fan favorites, and the soulful and rocking deeper cuts found on their first few albums. Hear such hits as "25 or 6 To 4", "Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is", "If You Leave Me Now", "Saturday in the Park" and many more.

Consumed By Fire Contemporary Christian

The brother trio, made up of Caleb, Josh and Jordan Ward, started in 2010 and is a musically inventive Southern pop/rock band that combines their church roots with an eclectic array of influences distilled into a sound that is uniquely their own. Growing up, when they weren't leading worship at church, they were singing songs from Creedence, Bob Seger or The Eagles with their large musical family. They soon found their calling and Consumed by Fire was born.
